Please log on to Facebook and share the Lions Follies event that is on the Temple Founder Lions Club Page.

The TFLC had a musical performance by Academie Musique of Central Texas for our lunch program today.

Lois Reiter & Shelly Dennis from Academie Musique brought 9 children to play their instruments. Mrs. Dennis is a native of Temple, Texas. She attended college at Hardin Simmons University where she studied choral conducting and voice pedagogy. She began her career teaching in the public schools, but moved to private teaching and working in the church. Mrs. Dennis presently teaches private voice and leads 2 youth choral ensembles. Mrs. Dennis has been a featured soloist as well as a guest clinician and adjudicator for various events. Mrs. Dennis has been married for 29 years and is the mother of three daughters.

The Academie Musique of Central Texas has a slew of programs for those children who embrace music, including: Guitar, Orchestra, Choral, Suzuki Groups and String Ensembles, Children's Group Piano, Children's Musical Theater Workshop, Teen Musical Theater Workshop, Strings Summer Camp and All State Choir Camp.
