UMHB—The Time Is Now for the Performing Arts

Melissa Tyroch Bragg, the Director of Gift Planning for UMHB, visited with our club this week. She talked to us about the new UMHB Performing Arts Center. It is a $20 million building on the corner of Main & MLK that will foster programs in music & theater. Did you know that each UMHB student is required to have a fine arts experience every semester? This 546 seat theater will have a proscenium stage, fly space and an orchestra pit and as part of the University Master Plan, will take them many years into the future. Melissa is only $430,874.88 away from completing a $5 million challenge grant! Isn't this something you would like to be a part of?

VISITORS THIS WEEK:

- Nancy Rude—Wife of Lion John Rude

As many of you know, one of our "3 Musketeers" reluctantly announced this week that he will need to step down from his position as "1st Vice President". This comes on the heels of a transfer to Waco for his new position at Extraco Banks. Stan Giles....we are so sad to hear this news but we support you in your new endeavors! Stan says he will still be around so we won't have to miss him too much. Guess this means that Shannon and Lathe each move up a spot and the board will need to conduct a special election for a 3rd VP. More to come...
