What happened at the Meeting

Voice of the

John Morris

Lion Jim Covington invited the Voice of the Baylor Bears to lunch today. Officially, John Morris is Baylor's Assistant Athletic Director for Broadcasting following in the footsteps of legendary Baylor announcer Frank Fallon. John worked alongside Fallon for eight years on Baylor football broadcasts (1987-1995). In his role as the signature voice of Baylor Athletics, John is in his 31st overall season broadcasting Baylor Bear Football. A 1980 Baylor graduate, John hails from Louisville Kentucky. He worked 15 years as the sports anchor for Channel 10 - KWTX Waco before moving into the Baylor post. November 23, 2013, Morris broadcast his milestone 300th consecutive Baylor Football game. Morris has also broadcast Baylor baseball, softball, women's basketball, tennis, soccer, volleyball, equestrian, and track & field. As well, he hosts the daily "John Morris Show" on flagship station 1660 ESPN Radio in Waco.
