This Week's Program

Head Coach Pete Fredenburg spoke to our Lions Club this week. Coach Fredenburg has been the head coach at the University of Mary Hardin Baylor for the last 17 years.

Fredenburg's 2004 squad finished as runners-up in the NCAA Division III National Football Championship, losing to Linfield.

Before coming to Mary Hardin— Baylor, Fredenburg served as an assistant coach at Baylor University (1982— 1993), Louisiana State University (1994), and Louisiana Tech University (1995—1996). He played football at Southwest Texas

State University, now known as Texas State University –San Marcos, from 1968 to 1970.

Did you know?

Enough pizza is sold in the US every day to cover 100 acres.

On average, each person in the US eats around 23 pounds of pizza every year.

More pizza is consumed during Super Bowl week than any other time of the year.
