This week we welcomed Robert Dewester to our club as the guest speaker. Mr. Dewester presented a program entitled, "Why people kill people, reducing human violence". Robert sited one study that indicates 90 % of men & 80% women have homicidal thoughts, killer thoughts. He said our brains are continually making decisions that are not always in our best interest.

During his 10 month of marriage, Robert & his wife went mountain climbing. He found he had this increasing urge to push her off the mountain. How do you answer the question, Why? Mr. Dewster asks, What happens to us in our diving people into two categories, Friend or Foe?

Whatever the answer, it took him a long time to decide. After 25 years of marriage he got a divorce!
