CLUB ANNOUNCEMENTS:

There will be a Lasagna Supper meeting Monday 07/27/2015 at Schlotzsky's in Temple at noon. This is a very important meeting. We need to decide what we are going to serve and how we are going to sell the tickets and get the word out. So, please attend if possible.

Jamie just will not seem to ever finish with his awards, that said, Sheriff Eddy Lange received a well deserved award for his work on TFLC Reverse Auction. Not only did the sheriff run the event for us he was crucial in the ticket sales for the event. Thank You sheriff Lange.

This Week's Program

Sarah Chudalla from Baylor Scott & White spoke about the Standardized Patient Program. The program is a training tool for medical students. There are three categories of participants. Actors, Models and teachers. These are paid positions and they are always looking for more volunteers. If you are interested in helping out, and making some money on the side, call 254-724-7025, or email spprogram@sw.org.

Lion Spotlight of the Week

George White

George White is a native of Temple. He graduated in 1969 from Temple High School. He later attended Temple College and Central Texas College. Before getting into real estate in the late seventies he was a co-owner of the Red Hanger Ltd. , a clothing store in downtown Temple in the early-seventies. He has been very involved in the community having served as a President of the Temple-Belton Board of REALTORS and in the same position with the Temple Founder Lions Club and Temple Lions Parks and Charities.

He has been the recipient of many Lions' award including the Harley D. Mitchell Leo Award, The DQ"Jack" Baskin Lion of the Year, and he has been named a Jack Wiech and a Melvin Jones fellow. Also he chaired many committees of the Temple Chamber of Commerce including the "Round-up Gang" and "Buy local" committees.

He and Dr. Gary Gosney have been responsible for putting together and directing the Temple Lion Follies , an annual variety show for over 30 years. Mr. White is also an MC for a number of annual events including the Taste of Home Cooking School, The Temple Founder's Day celebration and the Temple Chamber Annual Party to name a few. He also enjoys after dinner speaking to groups in and around the area. He has been called one of the "Funniest Guys in Temple". He and his wife Laura own and operate Laura White Interior Design. They have worked together for over 30 years. He has a son Colby age 38, daughter Shelby age 34 and two grandchildren, Saylor and Ryder.

Lion Don Gregory received the Silver Membership award today for his work with the Texas Lions Camp.

Jamie also gave Lion John Conner the Jack Wiech Fellow Award for all the work he has done for the TFLC.

Last but not least, Lion George White inducted Temple Fire Chief Mitch Randles, welcome to the club Mitch.
