ANNOUNCEMENTS

Next week John Alaniz will become Lion John Alaniz.

Lion Gary Gosney was back among us and is doing well.

There are several Lions who have not paid their 2008-2009 dues. More than one notice has been sent in the last three months. We need this revenue to operate.

Lion James Wright won $5 on the first ticket, hence the drama was short-lived.

Lion David Jennings won some Symphony tickets.

Lion Jamey Secrest presented the club with a newspaper insert (The Daily Cub, I think) from 1963, previously housed in the Secrest Family Archives. I believe it had something about that year's Lions Show in it.

Meal prices will be going up to $8 starting the first meeting in November. We knew this was coming because prices have been the same for 4 years. The board also requested that the caterers discontinue dessert so that we can have fewer entrees that are high in starch (i.e. more meat).

GREETERS

- Oct. 22 - Lions Gil Gregory and Frank Hajda
Oct. 29 - Lions Mike Hamby and Ray Harper

GUESTS

I think all the guests were affiliated with today's program and therefore mentioned in the Program section. I did not receive a guest list so I apologize if I have left anyone out.

BIRTHDAYS

Oct. 22 – Lion John Mischian

UPCOMING MEAL

THIS WEEKS PROGRAM

Lion Tom Fairlie introduced Richard Thomssen, Executive Director of the Temple Symphony Alliance, a fundraising arm of the Temple Symphony Orchestra which is now in its 15th season. They are only one program into the new season with six shows remaining, so go get some culture before it is too late.

We then enjoyed a performance from the Temple College Show Choir, under the direction of Roy Finney. They began with a medley of songs from the hit musical Grease, accompanied on the keyboard by Wayne Bachus and wonderfully choreographed by Susan Gosney. This was followed by a beautiful song Prayer of the Children, a piece that will be performed during a program called Mass of the Children on November 21st at Temple College. This event will feature over 200 singers/performers from the Temple College Symphony Chorale, Gatesville High School, Tarleton State University, Leon Heights Elementary, and Academy Musique. Mary Fairlie will be conducting the Orchestra. The event is $10 and proceeds will benefit Children's Health. The TC Show Choir concluded their program with Ain't No Mountain High Enough. The whole program was very entertaining and enlightening. Thank you Lion Tom!
