Here Is What Happened...

Big thanks to Immediate Past President Randy Sepulvado for inviting Lieutenants Aaron & Chantel Millin with the Salvation Army as our program. They transferred to the McLane Center of Hope in late June from Tyler. The Millin's would love to have an afterschool program for neighborhood children to help with homework and a summer program. However, getting the men's shelter open is top priority. To achieve the goal staffs need to be hired and money raised. With more mouths to feed the center will look to increase the food it receives from the Central Texas Food Bank. Each Salvation Army is first funded by the community it serves; the Christmas Kettles can fund 25 % of the year. Grants and fundraisers help, but the generosity of local residents is what keeps the ministry functioning. For each donated dollar, 82 cents serves the local community.
