This Week's Program

Michele Melsha & Barb Swarthout

Nat'l Alliance on Mental Illness ,

Michele shared her personal story of mental illness. Her mother shared her story from a parents perspective. Michele said that given the proper mix of meds, most patients can live a reasonably normal life and that diagnosis and treatment were very important. Barb added that mental illness isn't a death sentence, but something that can be worked thru.

Michele currently volunteers at the Temple Area NAMI. They meet at the VA every 2nd and 4th Tuesday of the month. 5th floor, valet parking entrance.

They have a big event coming up October 10th at the Temple Library, 3rd floor.

Help Needed!
Temple Wildcat
Mentor Program

The Temple Wildcat Mentor Program is an easy way to make a difference in young peoples lives. In just a few short hours a month you can help an at risk student of TISD. Simply show up. These children need you to come to their campus twice a month, eat lunch with them and talk, maybe play a game and listen. That's it. So please sign up today. Ask Michelle, or Randy.
