Kris Radcliffe spoke to TFLC today on a variety of interesting media-related topics. Kris Radcliffe is the 5, 6, and 10 p.m. news anchor at KCEN TV serving the Waco/Temple/Killeen area. Kris has been at KCEN for 17 years. Prior to that, he worked on air in Nebraska and California. In 2016, 2017, and 2018, Kris was named the "Waco Tribune-Herald On-Air Television Personality of the Year." Viewers enjoy Kris in all of his roles at KCEN. He has anchored sports and was the morning news anchor for nine years. He brought a smile to all faces as he helped Central Texas start their day on a positive note!

In 2016, Texas Today won an AP Award for "Best Morning Newscast." Now, viewers enjoy Kris in the evenings alongside Leslie Draffin. Over his 17 years at KCEN, Kris has covered some amazing stories, including the Baylor Men's Basketball scandal, the Columbia break-up over Texas, the 3 National Championships for the Lady Bears, and even a Heisman Trophy story. In more recent years, Kris covered the two Fort Hood shootings, the West Fertilizer Plant Explosion, and the Twin Peaks biker shootout. Kris is a native of Torrance, California --a suburb of Los Angeles-- and a graduate of California State University at Long Beach. His father was a teacher and a coach, and also worked for the Lakers. His role was the official scorekeeper for all home games for 48 years! That made his dad the longest tenured employee in franchise history! Kris needs just 31 more years at KCEN to catch him. Kris is blessed to have an amazing wife and two wonderful daughters!

Right: A big congratulations to Lisa Adams for getting rid of her Red Badge! Woohoo!
