These guys can eat. Nonetheless, always great to host the WILDCATS.

According to Marcine Cottle—who just turned 99 on August 6th—the Temple football team blue-front, white-back signature pants were dreamed up by Ted Dawson and sketched on a napkin at the Northside Drug Store in downtown. Coach Dawson began coaching at the high school in ‘46 and was known for pushing the limits of what was allowed in the uniform department. Holt’s Sporting Goods in Waco produced the first set of blue and whites. It certainly helps the more “experienced” wildcat fans identify if the team is coming or going.
