August 24

Monica Silcott

Monica spoke to us about the importance of normalizing the conversation around mental health issues. We obviously suffer tremendously in our club. Also, remember the number 211 to find resources available in our community.

Welcome to the club—Ricky Brenek. A true Seaton-ite. Unlike a lot of folks from that part of the county, I heard he still has all his original teeth. However, he also said his dentist was Gary Gosney.

August 27th is a very special day for many reasons. You may remember the day in 1979 when the second cousin of the Queen of England, Lord Louis Mountbatten was killed. IRA terrorists detonated a 50-pound bomb on his fishing boat in Donegal Bay off Ireland's northwest coast. Like Gilligan, he left for a 3-hour tour and never came home. Lord Mountbatten was one of the most popular members of the royal family because he was actually fighting alongside his fellow countrymen even though he was the Commander of the British Royal Navy.
