Today, Seth Chambliss and Zach Behr from the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA) spoke to TFLC. Zach Behr is an Area Representative with the FCA who has lived in Temple for the majority of his life. Zach told TFLC how God has called him to ministry through FCA. He attended Schreiner University and graduated with a bachelor's degree from Texas Lutheran University. He played college basketball all four years of his undergraduate career. He was also a student assistant coach his last semester of school, and was able to see the rigorous schedule required of a collegiate-level athletic team coach. He noted how humbling it was to observe and how this has attributed to his desire to assist coaches, and also show them the impact they have on students, athletes, and also across the community. He told us that his hope, through his work with FCA, will be to reach every coach and athlete through witnessing about Jesus Christ, and show them how they can bring others to Christ as well.

Seth Chambliss was also able to speak to the club today. He is the Area Director of Heart of Texas FCA, and has been on the staff for 16 years. He has been married to his wife Kerry for 25 years, and they have three sons.

The mission of the Heart of Texas FCA is: "To see the world transformed by Jesus Christ through the influence of coaches and athletes."

The ministry of the Heart of Texas FCA covers over 200 campuses across 12 counties in Central Texas. Thank you Seth and Zach for speaking to us today!
