➤ THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM

What a great day and presentation to honor someone who represents the Very True Meeting of Lionism in Texas. PDG Lion Charley Stout was inducted in to the Lions Texas Hall of Fame. He meant so much too so many and a servant mentor to us all. PIP Grindstaff summed it up best “He was convicted in Christian life and in Lionism, including the camp, that was his Camp. The Stout was stout about these!” I would like to add one more, Temple Lions Park was his park and he made sure we all knew it. Above, Mrs. Carol Stout receives the Charley Stout, Texas Hall Of Fame Plaque and Medal. Carol shared a few stories with us and read letters for their Son, Dr. Tracey Stout and Daughter, Lori Stout. We would like to share Lori's thoughts with you today.

Dear Lions-

I wish I could be here today as you honor my Daddy, Charles Stout (don't laugh at me for calling him Daddy—he will ALWAYS be Daddy to me). The Lions Club played such a huge role not only in my Daddy's life but in our entire family's life. We've been going to Lions Club shows for as long as I can remember. My Mom loves to tell me the story of the time we were at a Lions Club show when I was a toddler. She smiles & says there was a skit where someone hit my Daddy with a baseball bat and she describes how I stood in my seat and yelled “Don't hit my Daddy!” I have so many fond memories of shows full of silly skits, crazy cross-dressing dancers, Daddy's signature hop, cow bells, candy & prizes. These memories are priceless.

I remember there were usually massive amounts of Lions paraphernalia strewn about the house which my Mom just loved! Daddy always had checks to write, envelopes to stuff (I stuffed my fare share for a price), luncheons, meetings and camps to attend. I'm pretty sure he had perfect attendance for the meetings—who does that!? Daddy was so proud to serve and was a true example of all the things the Lions Club stands for. He dedicated so much time & effort to the Lions and loved every minute of it—ok, almost every minute.

Daddy formed many wonderful friendships over the years with so many amazing, smart, crazy and funny people. Thank you for being such great mentors and friends to him over the years. You all have had such a positive impact in the world, the community and our lives. I can't thank all of you enough for how wonderful you have been to our family and how blessed we are to know all of you. I am also forever grateful for all the amazing ways you have honored Daddy. It really means the world to me, my Mom & my brother. I didn't think I could be more proud to call Charles Stout my Daddy but you have made my heart burst with pride & joy.

Thank you for all the wonderful stories you've told about Daddy. Thank you for telling me some things I didn't even know he did, he was humble like that. Daddy wouldn't have done well taking all this honor & praise when he was alive but I know he is smiling down from heaven in his yellow vest covered in pins & secretly loving it!!!

Forever thankful and grateful,

Lori Stout
