What happened at the Meeting

Sue Hamby, Linda Johnson, and Maxine Huddleston spoke to our Club today about the Neema House.

Hollub and Lion Michelle DiGaetano (aka Michael DiGlatano).

The Neema House Inc, now Neema Village, is a 501(c)3 registered non profit in the USA and a registered NGO in Tanzania. Neema is Swahili, means Grace and any good done has been done by the Abundant Grace of God!

Neema Village began as "Neema House" in 2012 as a rescue center for abandoned, orphaned and at risk babies in Arusha, Tanzania, East Africa. During that time , more than a hundred babies have been rescued, many abandoned babies have now been adopted and others who had lost their mothers during the birth were saved and have now been able to return home to an extended family member. For more information go to neemavillage.org to see how you can be a part of this worthwhile project.

Note from the Editor

It has truly been an experience to produce the 48 Broadcasters this year for the Temple Founder Lions Club. Many thanks to Lion's Shannon & Cheryl that took photos for me when I was absent. I'd also like to thank Al Gore for inventing the internet that provided so much free content that I liberally cut and pasted into the Broadcaster. Now it's time to pass the baton.

On behalf of me and the entire Broadcaster Staff.....
