TEMPLE COLLEGE JAZZ SEXTET

If you weren't at today's program, you missed out. I'll try to summarize it for you: "Skeedle-dee-dee de-doo-wop wah-pow. Skeedle-ski-ski-skow, scu-scow de-wow. Do-bop de-doo-wop lay-lee-lop lo-meow."

It really was that good.

JazzFest featuring Stefon Harris and Ted Nash is March 30—April 1. Tickets are still available—you kool kats.

The origin of the word "jazz" is believed to be related to "jasm" - a slang term dating back to 1860 meaning "pep" or "energy." The earliest written use of that word was in a 1912 LA Times article wherein a minor league pitcher described a crazy pitch as a "jazz ball" because it wobbles and you can't do anything with it.
