What happened at the Meeting

Carlie Jo Hill, Dan Becker and Adam Dubberly gave us a preview of the upcoming Temple Civic Theatres' presentation of Little Shop of Horrors.

Seymour is a nerdy orphan working at Mushnik's, a flower shop in urban Skid Row. He harbors a crush on fellow co-worker Audrey, and is berated daily by Mr. Mushnik.

One day, just after a total eclipse of the sun, Seymour discovers a strange plant. He buys it and names it after Audrey. While caring for it, Seymour discovers the plant's rather unique appetite.

What's the plants unique appetite? Does Seymour get the girl? Will Mr. Mushnik ever cut Seymour some slack? Buy tickets and find out. For more information go to: www.templecivictheatre.org

The Lion's Follies a.k.a. "The Show"

April 7th & 8th will be the 78th showing of The Lion's Follies. This is a family friendly variety show that also happens to be our biggest fund raiser of the year. This is (quoting PDG Charlie Stout) an "All hands on deck" event. If you don't have a roll in The Show yet, you need to call Dennis Smith at 254.493.4065 or John Rude at 254.718.1504. We need Ushers, Candy sellers, Prize room attendants, Back Stage help and more.

Candy tagging is a huge event and will be on March 28th at 5pm until we're done. We will need at least 40 people to help. A huge thank you to Reuben for opening his Party Barn for Lions' use. Reuben's address is 3908 S Pea Ridge Rd, Temple. Bring a stapler and staples and a tape dispenser. Reuben brings food so bring a few bucks to help out.
