J.A.I.L. MINISTRY, INC.

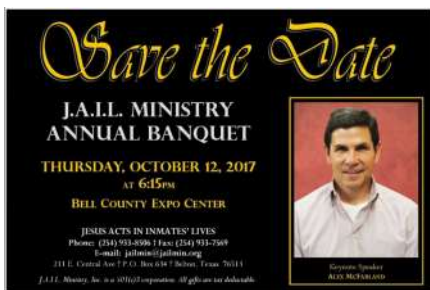

What happened at the Meeting

Boss Lion Dennis Smith invited Steve Cannon, Executive Director J.A.I.L. Ministry, Inc. as our program today. Steve spent more than 35 years in radio, television, and advertising. He is now responsible for the administration of all programs and aspects of Christian ministry through the Belton branch of J.A.I.L. Ministries. Their mission is to bring restoration through Jesus Christ to the lives of inmates, juvenile offenders, enforcement and affected Ministry, Inc., nonprofit jail at the Bell Enforcement the Juvenile inmates, juvenile offenders, law professionals, families. J.A.I.L. is a 501(c)(3) ministry based County Law Center & and Services Center in Killeen. J.A.I.L. volunteers & staff are responsible for distributing free Bibles and Christian literature inside county jails as well as conducting anger resolution classes for inmates & providing crisis support for the Bell County Sheriff's Office. Each week J.A.I.L. conducts 45 Bible studies throughout the county jail system.

On October 12, J.A.I.L. Ministries will host their annual banquet. The featured speaker will be Alex McFarland, writer and advocate for Christian apologetics. He is the author of several books and is director of the Center for Christian Worldview and Apologetics at North Greenville University.

@ this months board of directors meeting we voted 'Aye' to purchase a new grill for the club.
